

TAMARA DUNLAP

PARTNER

Tamara Dunlap is a Partner at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. Immediately before joining Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, Tamara was Assistant County Attorney for Loudoun County Attorney's Office in Loudoun County, Virginia, from 2007 to 2015, where her practice focused on public procurement and real estate, construction, and collateralization of performance agreements between the County and various private entities.

From 2002 to 2007, Tamara worked for Smith Pachter McWhorter, a construction and government contracts law firm in Tyson's Corner, Virginia. Her practice areas included construction law, government and public contracts, and commercial litigation. While with Smith Pachter McWhorter, she drafted and edited complaints, GAO protests, answers, interrogatories, and other pleadings and motions in Government Contracts and Construction Litigation filed with the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, GAO, the Court of Federal Claims and local District, and Circuit Courts in Washington, D.C., and Virginia.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Washington and Lee University School of Law
- B.S., American University (Magna Cum Laude)

ADMISSIONS

- Virginia

CONTACT

Call
571-252-3158

Email
tamaradunlap@dbllawyers.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate Transactions and Finance
Litigation & Disputes
Real Estate & Construction
Regulatory & Government

INDUSTRIES

Construction
Government Contracting

OFFICE

Vienna, VA

