

TRACY L. PEARSON

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Tracy Pearson is a Senior Associate at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. Prior to joining the firm, Tracy spent a decade as a family law practitioner and litigator. Tracy also previously served as a Deputy Attorney General for the State of Delaware and has experience with criminal prosecution and civil litigation.

Tracy is goal-oriented; she likes to find creative solutions to meet each of her client's specific legal needs. She currently assists individuals and businesses in Delaware and New York on a wide range of matters, including corporate, estate, and personal matters. Tracy also has the ability to serve as local counsel in Delaware if an out-of-state Attorney needs access to litigate in Delaware Courts. Tracy is a NOVA native and has spent the last two decades calling Delaware "home."

In addition to spending lots of time zipping between the Delaware beaches and Philadelphia, Tracy first and foremost enjoys spending time at home in North Wilmington with her family and her sweet Puggle, Chloe.
