

SARAH STORCH

ASSOCIATE

Sarah Storch is an associate with Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. Her primary area of practice is Trust and Estate law. She earned her B.A. in Government and International Politics with a minor in Legal Studies from George Mason University in 2004 and her J.D. from Ohio Northern University School of Law in 2008.

Prior to joining Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, Sarah worked as an associate for a law firm where she practiced estate planning and elder law. Before working in the estate planning area of law, Sarah served as a staff associate for a title company and law firm where she focused on residential real estate law. Sarah also practiced healthcare law and healthcare reimbursement law as a staff attorney for a revenue cycle management company.

Sarah is licensed to practice in Virginia and enjoys working with clients to help them achieve their estate planning needs. She is a member of the Virginia Bar Association, the Virginia Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the Estates, Wills, and Trust division of the Fairfax County Bar Association. She also volunteers with the Fairfax County Department of Family Services for guardianship and conservatorship cases.

Outside of the firm, Sarah enjoys cooking, traveling, playing tennis, and spending time with her husband, two children, and their family dog.
