

HARVEY B. JACOBSON, JR.

PARTNER

Harvey B. Jacobson, Jr. is a Partner at Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig with over 35 years of intellectual property litigation experience. Currently based in Washington DC, his practice is focused on trademark, patent, and copyright law.

Jacobson served as lead counsel in over thirty major trials and multiple appeals, including patent infringement cases for both patent owners and accused infringers, patent interferences, trademark infringement and trade dress infringement claims, license disputes, as well as International Trade Commission and Federal Communication Commission cases. As lead counsel in nine jury trials, Harvey B. Jacobson, Jr. secured multimillion-dollar awards for his clients. Many of the trial court and appellate court decisions where Jacobson was lead counsel were published in the West System and United States Patents Quarterly, highlighting their importance.

Currently, Mr. Jacobson's practice is transactional in the field of intellectual property law including the preparation, filing and prosecution of multiple patent, trademark and copyright applications in the United States and abroad. He also specializes in the investigation and preparation of validity, infringement, and freedom to operate opinions directed to both utility and design U.S. patents. He has extensive experience with intellectual property licensing and sales agreements, and regularly advises clients regarding patent and trademark strategies.
